Good Morning Sons and Daughters of the Living GOD!!! I trust you were able to participate in some parts of our Vision Planning Retreat this weekend. We thank each person for coming out and participating and we thank Brian Rainwater so much for his leadership as facilitator and for delivering our message this morning. Last week I discussed with you the subject matter of Christ, the hope of all glory. There is no way to fully address the hope and scope of what that means in a few sentences so these comments are a "few flakes off the iceberg" of the enormity of what this means that Christ is the hope of all glory. Christ is the investment of GOD both into our lives and then how we invest back into the Kingdom of GOD. When we think of investing within the stock market there is always the risk of loss and gain but with Christ, the hope of all glory, GOD is saying to us this is an investment that you cannot lose your hope in. If you trust Christ, Christ will open the door of all of GOD's resources to you as the time is right. Jesus will lead us into the further wonderful purposes of GOD in the process of time. There is so much the LORD can and wants to do with our lives. He just wants us to see that no matter what our situation, our focus and dependence and trust on CHRIST leads to opportunities of further seeing GOD walking with us through life and enriching our life’s journey with his wisdom and provision as needed. Therefore, Christ is the access to more than we ever even could hope for as we trust the LORD. This is something to consider as we turn our focus on our stewardship emphasis in the weeks to come. Blessings for the journey! Pastor Robert
