Sermon Review and Introduction

This has been an interesting calendar year in that Pentecost Sunday is followed by Father's Day. At first glance the two separate days appear to have no connection. While they don't have to always be connected, there is a divine correlation. The relationship comes from the genius of our heavenly Father's creative force and purpose in fatherhood. Pentecost Sunday is the celebration of the Father's intention and accomplishment of sending into the church Holy Spirit to fill us, lead us, protect us, and teach us all things and truth we must know to live life to the fullest capacity. Father's Day is the celebration and/or memory of our dad and what he is to us. If we were fortunate enough, we were born into a family that raised us in a healthy home where dad filled us with love, led us, protected us and taught us what we needed to know to live this life in a productive and meaningful way. Do you now see the divine correlation between the two? We'll consider this more today. There are too many persons who didn't have a strong role model in their dad and unfortunately thousands who had no father at all. If that was anyone's situation reading this please know your story line was not the exact perfect will of your heavenly Father! Our GOD IS A GOOD GOD! Unfortunately this is not always the case with earthly fathers. GOD is into fatherhood not fatherhoax or fatherghost. Let's look at this today. Blessings for the journey!

Pastor Robert

WE WANT OUR CHILDREN TO GO TO SUMMER CAMP.

South Carolina Methodists have a terrific camp at Asbury Hills Camp. At the last Trinity council meeting we all agreed that one of our greatest missions/ ministries is our children. Therefore we decided that Trinity will pay for the children who regularly come to Sunday School and take part in our activities to go to Camp Asbury this summer. We must make it possible to send our children to an experience that will help them grow stronger in so many ways- some ways that won't be known until much later. We currently have 5 children/youth signed up to go to camp.

This is beyond our budget. However, we will accept donations toward this cause before and after camp takes place. This is a leap of faith for us, but our faith and future is in our children.

Marilyn Lloyd, Nurture Chair

To Our Youth and Children of Trinity:

Be sure to check with Ruth Frady or Patsy Boggs to see if there is a camp time still available for you to attend. Check with your parents for permission. We want you to go to camp if there is a space still open and if you can go that week. Let Miss Ruth or Miss Patsy know if there are Camp supplies that you need help in getting. Trinity Church wants to help you go to camp. If you can't go this year, plan to ask about camp starting in February or March, so we can make sure that you can have this experience.
