Thanks for your presence today as we celebrate Consecration Sunday. You have the opportunity not only to worship God, but to commit yourself in giving for 2015. During the service, you will be given a commitment card to fill out. At the end of the service, please bring the card and place it on the altar. You are encouraged to spend a few moments at the altar thanking God for His many blessings and to pray for God’s work here at Trinity. Thank you in advance for your Christian response.

Welcome today to a very special service for the Stewardship Campaign. Bonnie Ramsey will be sharing with us the words of inspiration the LORD has given her to bring these special days to a wonderful conclusion. We look forward to what Bonnie will share with us today and we are grateful to GOD and Bonnie for sharing with us. In the past four weeks we have heard presentations from Chris Derrick, John Ballentine, Jo Ann Heiting and Christopher McCroskey that have encouraged us to give thought, attention and further dedication to our practice and use of Christian Stewardship. Those talks helped build the momentum for today's presentation for many reasons. The primary one I wish to refer to here is this. All the forms of discipleship referred to in the past weeks are part of the basic foundation necessary that establishes the discipline necessary leading to our financial stewardship. From the LORD's perspective people will not give or don’t give for HIS acceptable reasons without presence, service, prayer and witness being tied all together in our giving. When we participate, serve, pray and witness we are giving and when we give of our financial resources it goes further than we will ever understand if those disciplines motivate our financial giving. So thanks to all who participated in this year’s Stewardship Campaign. May the LORD bless your giving in the next fiscal year of Trinity's ministry!!!
Pastor Robert Reeves
