We would like to thank all who contributed to Emily's Bridal shower in any way, or form. The food was delicious, and the decorations were beautifully done! Thanks to all for the gifts, cards and well-wishes! We were all humbled and appreciative of the day.

In addition, we would like to thank everyone for our send-off reception on Sunday, June 14th. Again, it went beyond our expectations, from the food, and well-wishes, to the gifts we received. As we part ways, this is a note of gratitude and prayer for God's blessings to you all!

With love,

Robert, Melanie, Emily, Josh, and Susie Reeves

Sermon Review and a GREAT BIG THANK YOU FROM PASTOR ROBERT!!!

Well, this is it!!! The very last official sermon review from me to all of the flock at Trinity!!! Before we do any reviewing and even though we have included a thank you note to be read today in the worship time, please accept our gratitude for the gifts we received from the Trinity Church family as we move this week. Reverend Donna Eidson will officially become your pastor as of this Wednesday, June 24th. I trust and pray that your relationship and ministry together will be of value to the purpose of GOD and that much will be accomplished in CHRIST's purpose in your work together. Your gifts to our family were both generous and useful for Melanie and the family. Please refer to the thank you note we've inserted in today's bulletin. I also want to thank Laurie Knapp for sharing with the church this morning the message the LORD has given her. Please give your attention to what the HOLY SPIRIT has to say in this message. My last two messages in the GLIA were other "last thoughts" for your consideration in this transition time. That said, I must use space here to thank any and all of you for the things you do at Trinity that make it function well and those contributions that are a benefit to the local church. I wanted to thank those who help with Sunday services and those who assist in the Communion services. When you begin thanking persons you're always concerned you'll forget someone and I don't want to do that so for all you do to make Trinity a GOD place that welcomes the LORD and others THANK YOU SO MUCH FROM YOUR MOVING PASTOR!!!! And now, on to the review.

I'll leave it up to Laurie to share with you her thoughts in the message this morning. As we consider what was shared last Sunday those of us who want to keep walking with GOD will see reoccurring themes and lessons as we walk with JESUS in this life. The ones that were referred to last week were these. They are listed for your consideration and prayerful attention if you please. We will learn to further forgive. We will learn to further trust GOD. We will learn to wait upon the LORD. We will learn GOD is our provider, our sustainer and our protector. We will learn to give grace to the fallen or we will fall from grace. We will learn to further love everyone in the power and grace of JESUS. If you were not here these principles are fairly self explanatory. As always, blessings for the journey as you walk after JESUS!!! So long is not forever! C U again here or in the LORD's perfect Kingdom one day.

LOVE and BLESSINGS!!!
Pastor Robert Reeves
