From the Pastor

During the month of August we will be having “camp meeting” style services except for communion services. These services will be less formal with more singing and less liturgy. Part of these services will be sharing our stories of faith and how God has worked in our lives. If you feel led to share your story let John know.

Wrapped up in the pursuit are detective John Hunt (Casey Affleck), who becomes captivated with Forrest's commitment to his craft, and a woman (Sissy Spacek), who loves him in spite of his chosen profession.

Aldersgate Special Needs Sunday Sunday, August 11

Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry was born at the 2003 South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and provides homes for adults with developmental disabilities. Today, Aldersgate operates three homes for adults with special needs. The homes provide life skills training, recreational experiences and connections to worshipping communities. Adults with special needs are among the most underserved people in South Carolina and the nation. The need for their care continues to grow. The South Carolina Annual Conference gives support by designating an Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry offering to be taken each year on the second Sunday in August, or an alternate Sunday chosen by each church. They are not an apportioned item in the Annual Conference budget.

Sunday, August 18

In preparation for the new school year we will have our annual Blessing of the Backpacks at our 11 a.m. service on August 18.

We will pray over the children and all current and past school workers. An education is so important today and we want to send our pupils back to school with the blessings of the Lord to watch over them and help them have an amazing school year.
