Through the month of May, we will be receiving a Love Offering for Christopher McCroskey. As many of you know, Christopher was hospitalized for twelve days after having his big toe on the right foot amputated due to an infection. He will be having physical therapy at home and even though he will be able to play for church, he will not be able to return to substitute teaching this school year. He will also be faced with medical bills that his insurance will not cover. If you would like to contribute to this Love Offering, please make the check out to Trinity and write Love Offering in the Memo Line. The Love Offerings will be tax deductible.
